Dan Olson, CEO, UpCity

This recognition has been driven in large part by our perfect 5-star UpCity review rating. Here are a few of our favorite pieces of feedback we've received from our amazing customers:

"What can you say about WebCitz? These people will stop what they're doing and help you. We had a lady who crashed our website and within minutes after I called they had it fixed. Amazing!" - Marvin M., March 2022

"I had lost hope that I would find an organization to help me with building a robust website, as we have complex issues with how we display and organize our 17k+ SKUs online. After 10 years and four firms, I connected with WebCitz. They are professional, courteous, and super intuitive. They listened to my concerns and tailor-built a solution. They have walked me through every aspect of building not only our dream website but the infrastructure behind the scenes. I will never need to go anywhere else but WebCitz for all of my e-commerce needs. If you want a team of pros that can make your vision a reality, then look no further than WebCitz." - Madison R., March 2022

We'd like to thank UpCity for recognizing us with this tremendous honor. It's truly incredible to be amongst such incredible national and Appleton-area agencies in the UpCity community.
