

Zengage Learning Announces Cryptocurrency Wealth Building Series to Help Beginners Become Successful Traders

Cryptocurrency Wealth Building Series provides unparalleled research-based approach to foundation level crypto trader education and training

NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, May 22, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Zengage Learning, an online academic publisher, has announced the release of an unprecedented crypto trading preparation program, Cryptocurrency Wealth Building Series.

Developed in collaboration with professors from top universities like Harvard, Cryptocurrency Wealth Building Series offers a first-of-its-kind research-based approach to crypto trading skills development and career preparation.

"Preparing for investment and trading success, with Cryptocurrency Wealth Building Series, is a wise decision for anyone, especially those who lack formal education, knowledge, and experience"

"Participating in the Cryptocurrency Wealth Building Series in today's vast redistribution of wealth scenario is a wise decision for anyone, especially those who want to begin building wealth as a professional crypto trader," said Leonard Cox, co-founder and CEO, Zengage Learning. "We are proud to offer the first only Cryptocurrency Wealth Building Series that closely models expensive, 6-month and one-year, certificate programs offered by some of best universities. Cryptocurrency Wealth Building Series provides learners with content which was researched and audited from top programs. The Cryptocurrency Wealth Building Series approach enables participants to save thousands of dollars with enhanced access and support services."

Cryptocurrency Wealth Building Series

Each of Cryptocurrency Wealth Building Series' twelve course — from history to technical analysis — includes audiovisual lessons, eBook study guides, and assessment exams which empower students with comprehensive and concise real-world knowledge and skills. Additionally, numerous supplemental resources and references, reinforce essential skills and cultivate valuable crypto trading strategies for success.

"Cryptocurrency Wealth Building Series is truly exceptional," said Sarah Diamond, experienced professor and instruction designer at Zengage Learning. "For a low cost compared to similar programs, students have access to cryptocurrency trading knowledge and training only offered in certificate programs costing $12,000, or more. Free or paid courses via sites like Udemy, Coursera, YouTube, or MOOCs do not provide necessary preparation needed to pursue a professional trader career." Mark Robinson, CLO, Zengage Learning.

Cryptocurrency Wealth Building Series was developed to help reduce the financial awareness and opportunity inequality affecting billions of people."
