

How to Create a High Performing Distributed Tech Team: more insights in Talent500 & ANSR's event series

Talent500 & ANSR have jointly come up with a series of events to democratize access to opportunities and set up globally distributed teams for global companies

BANGALORE, KARNATAKA, INDIA, May 23, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As a part of the mission to democratize access to opportunities, and set up globally distributed teams for top companies of the world with the best tech minds, Talent500 and ANSR have jointly come up with a series of events.

The new age workforce: building and leading distributed tech teams

These events are part of Tech Insider and Talent Insider, knowledge-sharing series aimed at enabling professionals with the latest in technology and its impact on various sectors; and companies to leverage global tech talent for business growth respectively.

As business leaders navigate the new world of work amidst the great reshuffle, there is increased mindshare on building and leading efficient distributed tech teams. The next Talent Insider session titled The new age workforce: building and leading distributed tech teams will be held on 2nd June 2022, Thursday, from 8:30 AM- 09:30 AM (IST), 8:00 PM - 9:00 PM (PST - 1st June) with Arunkumar NT, Ex MD & Head of Innovation, Telstra. He will share his
