"It's a tremendous honor to be named a Titan 100, especially in a year with such fierce competition," Kinsler said. "I look forward to continuing to serve, not just the Phoenix market, but nationwide and beyond. It is gratifying to see, every day, the companies and nonprofits that are saving money through MiCamp Solutions."

MiCamp has also launched a new free point of sale (POS) program. This revolutionary program puts the merchant first, allowing the merchant to process credit cards using a cash discount program. This option was currently unavailable anywhere in the industry until now.
