Save Max First Choice received the Most Progressive Franchise Award. Other awards were given to top-performing corporate employees across the company in Canada and India.

Founder and CEO, Mr. Raman Dua's daughter Shreya reflected on his journey and the story of Same Max from the beginnings in a basement home in Brampton, Canada to where it has reached today. Shreya Dua did a wonderful surprise unveiling of the cover of Mr. Raman Dua's book about his life and story. His daughter called on stage his entire family and spoke about growing up in Brampton. She said, "We never imagined growing up the heights we have reached today, and it is all due to the hard work my parents put in day after day and their determination which led to their success. My dad has helped countless people reach success along with him and he always says that "helping others is what makes our success even sweeter".

Mr. Dua was emotional as he saw his family gathered around him and said that all his achievements were due to the fact of the love and blessings received from his parents and family. The highlight of the lighter moments in the evening was the fashion show for all attendees. The belly dancers, the violinist and dhol group, Folks and Guys added to the long-awaited glitz and glamour in the wonderfully orchestrated celebration. CEO Raman Dua expressed his gratitude to all the attendees and congratulated his team and the agents who did exceedingly well even in the year of a severe pandemic. He was humbled to see such a huge gathering and mentioned that Save Max Team will keep on working tirelessly to provide the best real estate services to all clients. He applauded his team and employees for putting together this tasteful elegant evening and looks forward to celebrating many such successes in the future.
