GROVELAND, FL, UNITED STATES, May 25, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- During the week of Juneteenth, Foxillas will showcase black-owned businesses in Washington, D.C., who are making an impact on their community and changing the way we eat. Foxillas Taste of Freedom Campaign will enlighten all of us on the history and heritage of Juneteenth and the profound significance the celebration brings to the black community.

Juneteenth Taste of Freedom

“Juneteenth is a celebration of the courage and sacrifice our ancestors gave so all of us can experience freedom. My way of giving back this upcoming holiday is to celebrate this day in our nations capital and help black entrepreneurs spread the word about their businesses. Remembering stories of my great grandparents working from sunrise to sunset in cotton fields is a reminder of how blessed we are to have an opportunity to celebrate this special day together,” said Sabrina Simmons, Foxillas President and Chief Operating Officer.
