no Black woman has occupied before. Jackson, 51, becomes only the sixth woman and third Black justice to ascend to the high court, which will for the first time have two Black members, three members of color, and four women.

“We are excited to have a fellow criminal defense attorney in the room when the justices are discussing how the Constitution protects our liberty and our security,” says Imhoff. Jackson shattered the glass ceiling with the Senate’s 53-47 confirmation vote. Three Republicans —
