The widespread utilization of ceiling tiles in various multiplexes, shopping malls, and business centers represents one of the key factors driving the market growth in India. In line with this, an increasing number of ongoing infrastructural projects, significant investments made into the modernization of existing establishments and the growing consumer inclination toward aesthetically appealing ceiling structures, are creating a positive outlook for the market. Other factors, such as rising consumer expenditure capacities, along with extensive urbanization, are contributing to the market growth further across the country. Looking forward, IMARC Group expects the India ceiling tiles market to continue its robust growth during the forecast period (2022-2027).
