collagen peptides in nutritional products.*

VANCOUVER, BC, CANADA, May 26, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The global collagen peptides market size is expected to reach USD 913.1 Million in 2028 and register a CAGR of 5.1% over the forecast period, according to latest analysis by Emergen Research. Steady projected revenue growth can be attributed to shift in consumer preference towards healthy lifestyle and expanding application of collagen peptides in nutritional products, pharmaceuticals, and cosmetics. The psychological and nutritional properties of collagen peptides offer several health benefits such as minimizing muscle soreness after intense exercise, improving joint health, aiding in muscle growth, providing energy during workouts, and strengthening skin by helping the body produce more collagen and hyaluronic acid, and preventing bone loss.

“Expanding collagen peptides applications in nutritional products, food & beverages, pharmaceuticals, and cosmetics are some key factors driving market growth”
