ANNIVERSARY

LIONBRIDGE

Le Monde's audacious ambition is to reach one million paper and web subscribers by 2025. As of April 2022, the newspaper had 500,000 digital and print subscribers. Adding a digital English version will entice informed English-language subscribers who want a unique, European view of the news.

"With Le Monde, in English, our aim is to accelerate our growing digital subscriber base and eventually have our international audience represent nearly a quarter of our subscribers," says Louis Dreyfus, CEO of Le Monde. "In this regard, we are proud to partner with Lionbridge to provide our English readers the best quality translations."

Le Monde chose Lionbridge for its innovative AI (Artificial Intelligence)-based La□nguage Cloud™ which helps companies drive unprecedented global scale. Harnessing AI to support the full content lifecycle helps leaders like Le Monde resonate with their global customers in any language.
