

A WIN FOR THE DEAF AND NON-ENGLISH SPEAKING COMMUNITIES, FIRST PATENTED ON-DEMAND CAPTIONS AND TRANSLATION PLATFORM

VZP REACH Platform enables international reach of audiences, using a Hybrid of Human or AI Speech-to-Text technologies for LIVE translation, notes, captioning.

CENTENNIAL, CO, UNITED STATES, June 2, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In March, 2021, VZP Digital was issued the patent for ON-DEMAND CAPTIONS AND TRANSLATION. The initial filing was made in July 2018, making this patent a significant step in providing accessibility services to communities currently underserved across Television, Education, Webinars, Government, and Sporting or Conference Event venues both domestic and around the world.

Providing these much-needed additional services with integrated technology, has been a goal since VZP DIGITAL's beginning.”

Victor Z. Perez, President & CEO - VZP Digital

With VZP REACH, organizations can now provide LIVE captions and subtitles to audiences around the world. VZP REACH enables individuals to view real-time text, or automated notes, and select their preferred language, regardless of the audio language. This multi-lingual platform can be accessed by any internet browser capable device (smartphones, tablets, desktops, Smart TVs).

“CaaS or Captioning as a Service, VZP REACH enables professional stenographers, voice writers, interpreters, and Artificial Intelligence, to provide accessibility for organizations new and old alike. Providing these much-needed services with integrated technology, has been a goal since VZP DIGITAL's beginning,” says CEO and President, Victor Z. Perez.
