When agents work with YHSGR through the Zillow Premier Agent Flex Program, they receive many benefits, including warm leads from motivated home buyers, personalized support from Zillow, customer experience assistance, and the opportunity to leverage the Zillow brand on their social media pages. From a financial standpoint, agents are only charged the transaction fees once a transaction has closed. The Zillow program offers a widely recognized way to quickly grow an up-and-coming real estate practice.

Since 2007, YHSGR's proven process has helped agents generate leads without the dreaded prospecting and cold calling demands that discourage many from joining the industry. Instead, the agency brings in dozens of motivated, high-quality live warm connections and face-to-face appointments every week. This unique method enables all team members to maintain high profitability and unmatched success.
