

Natalie Farrell celebrates release of “Fake Authenticity” live in Asbury Park on Pride Weekend

Natalie will be celebrating her new single release, “Fake Authenticity” on Saturday, June 4th at Langosta Lounge in Asbury Park, NJ.

ASBURY PARK, NJ, UNITED STATES, May 31, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Natalie Farrell is a singer-songwriter from Asbury Park, New Jersey. She is known for her powerful, expressive contralto vocals and her eclectic mix of musical genres, including pop, soul, rhythm and blues, jazz, and rock.

Natalie started this year hitting the ground running with her highlight performance at the legendary venue, The SAINT at the annual Light of Day Winterfest, followed by her song “Keep me Close” being featured at the Garden State Film Festival on the award-winning film, “Twenty-Nine”, directed and produced by Rob Ciano.

It has taken me way too long to not care what others think, own my body, and come into my own, especially as an artist hustling in today’s social media world. I’m owning it now, and I love it.”

“It has taken me way too long to not care what others think, own my body, and come into my own, especially as an artist hustling in today’s social media world. I’m owning it now, and I love it. “Fake Authenticity” has a lot more to say. ” Farrell teased, alluding both to her music and the control she took over producing and marketing it this time around. The song can be pre-saved online now, or look for it on all streaming platforms on June 3.
