BALTIMORE, MARYLAND, UNITED STATES, May 31, 2022

/Einpresswire.com/ -- Clearview Group has been recognized as a Hall of Fame honoree and a winner in the 2022 Baltimore Business Journal's Best Places to Work competition, an awards program presented by the Baltimore Business Journal.

The Baltimore Business Journal's (BBJ) Best Places to Work awards seek to honor companies who provide a great place to work, and this year, 35 finalists and 12 winners were recognized across four company size categories — micro, small, medium and large — based on employee count. The finalists received the strongest scores among the nearly 100 nominated firms. The scores were based on a confidential employee survey given to each company's employees by the BBJ's Best Places to Work research partner, Quantum Workplace.

We were already honored to be inducted into the BBJ's Hall of Fame for the second time. To add a win truly reflects our team's collective hard work, dedication, and passion for what we do.”

Clearview Group placed in the medium-sized business category for 2022 and was inducted into the Hall of Fame in the same year.

To be inducted into the Hall of Fame, companies have to have been recognized as at least a finalist for three years in a row. After Hall of Fame induction, companies must take a two-year break from the competition. This was Clearview Group's second Hall of Fame induction.

“We were already honored to be inducted into the BBJ's Hall of Fame for the second time. To add a win truly reflects our team's collective hard work, dedication, and passion for what we do," says Marla Hiken, director of human resources at Clearview Group. "We're not a typical CPA firm. We offer an ambitious and engaging environment where employees care about each other and genuinely enjoy being together. We will continue in our relentless pursuit of making Clearview Group a place where our people can thrive."

"Our focus continues to be on providing the best environment to support our culture," adds Brian Davis, managing director and CEO. "That culture is comprised solely of the people on our team, so it's imperative we keep a keen eye on our employees' ever-changing needs and desires. Our history of recognition in these competitions proves we're up for the challenge and we take this very seriously."
