community of loyal customers and partners, and a big vision for the future of digital transformation.

CloudOffix CEO Gökhan Erdoğan expressed his happiness for this valuable cooperation. “For the digitization projects, our partners do not need to make partnerships with many different products independent from each other. Only with the CloudOffix platform, our partners can offer end-to-end customer-centric services for their customers.” He also added “In every region, every customer has different requirements. With the help of CloudOffix’s low-code-development features, our partners can also customize the platform very easily.”

NovaEdge CEO Mohammed Imran Ansari said, “Nova Edge is one of the fastest-growing IT companies in the United Arab Emirates. We have implemented and continue to implement dozens of digitization projects that contribute to both the local and global economy with our experienced team who understands corporate needs well and can produce effective and correct solutions for these needs.” Ansari also added, “We believe that in today's Metaverse era, CloudOffix platform offers an indispensable solution for all companies that want to keep up with the times and create added value.”

About CloudOffix

CloudOffix is an All-In-One CRM and Customer Experience (CX) Platform to unite all teams around customers by bringing Sales, Marketing, Project, Helpdesk, e-Commerce, Invoicing, and even HR together in a natively integrated, highly customizable, and collaborative environment. CloudOffix lets your entire team rally around a single platform for day-to-day work. One platform to learn. One place to check for notifications. There is no more constant switching between CRM, Email Marketing, Project Management, and other tools. Most importantly, there is no need to integrate all these applications. In this way, customers experience a more delightful digital experience.

About Novaedge
