The Certificate in Risk Governance® is a program that I would recommend for all board members. Great program, kudos to the DCRO Institute."

Brian Brown, FCAS, MAAA, Equity Principal and Consulting Actuary, Milliman nonprofit focused on bringing risk expertise to the boardroom and c-suite, announced today the award of the prestigious Certificate in Risk Governance® to Brian Brown of Chicago, Illinois, in the United States.

Brian is an Equity Principal and Consulting Actuary with Milliman, where he has worked for more than three decades with insurers and reinsurers around the world. He is a past Chair of the Casualty Actuarial Society (CAS) Board of Directors, where he led the Board in setting its strategic direction. He is the former Global Practice Director for Milliman's Casualty Practice, where he coordinated international strategies for Milliman's casualty practice, including offices in North and South America, Europe, Asia, Africa, and Australia. Brian was also on Milliman's Board of Directors from 2012-to 2018. Brian is an active advocate for increased diversity in the actuarial profession.

"Brian is a well-connected and well-established leader in the insurance space with real business experience," said David R. Koenig, President and Chief Executive Officer of the DCRO Institute. "In addition to his global business experience, the Certificate in Risk Governance® enhances his board skills and makes him an even more attractive and effective board member," he continued.

"The Certificate in Risk Governance® is a program that I would recommend for all board members, said Mr. Brown. "It provides practical examples of how to govern risk so your company can thrive. It highlights the upside and downside to risk and helps to provide insight on how to move the risk curve to your company's advantage. Great program, kudos to the DCRO Institute," he continued.

The DCRO Institute awards the Certificate in Risk Governance® to those who have completed The Board Members' Course on Risk® - an intensive 17-course education program and evaluation. The curriculum design is for current and aspiring board members who seek to advance the governance of risk-taking at their organizations and those who interact with boards. Taught by some of the world's leading figures in risk governance, the program features lessons by nearly 50 board members, c-level executives, and well-known authors from five continents. No course on risk for board members as
