Alex is touring in support of his debut album, MILLER TIME (Billy Jam Records), a 10-track mix of traditional Country barn burners, heartfelt ballads - and a few surprises. The disc, produced by Jerry Salley, is generating positive reviews, including:

Bill Cody, 650 AM WSM "Coffee, Country & Cody - "So proud of and for Alex. He's a winner ... I hear some Faron Young, Keith Whitley, Daryl Singletary and a little Hank Thompson and Ernest Tubb."

Greg Victor, ParcBench - "From the first note ... he establishes himself as a trustworthy narrator. It is this comfortable, grounded, and genuine quality that defines Miller as one of today's top Country artists."

Trigger, Saving Country Music - "If true Country music is to survive ... it's going to need souls committed to the cause ... The squared away and supremely talented Alex Miller certainly fits that bill. You can't fit an index card between his sound and how George Strait would define Country music for Merriam-Webster. stuff through and through.”

Duncan Warwick, Country Music People Magazine - “His voice has more warmth than his home state’s whiskey.”

Suzanne Alexander, TV & Radio Broadcaster, Writer, Producer - “A reminder of why many of us fell in love with this music in the first place.”

About Alex Miller

Alex first found national fame as a competitor on American Idol Season 19. It was a massive change for this Kentucky-born singer/songwriter - who was still working on the family’s farm when he was accepted for the show. Alex is an outlier in other ways, too: he is a true, torch-carrying champion of traditional Country music and he is proud of it. The 18-year-old began performing at shows in and around his hometown of Lancaster at the age of seven before moving on to larger venues, including the Dolby Theatre, Lucas Oil Stadium, Renfro Valley, and more. Since departing Idol, Alex has performed at Nashville’s Ryman Auditorium, five state Fairs (KY, MO, NY, WA, WI) as well as diverse venues around the country. He has headlined his own shows, and opened for Hank Williams, Jr., Josh Turner, Lee Brice, and more. In October of last year, Miller was named the Texas Roadhouse Artist of the Month and he performed a duet with Rhonda Vincent at the Lee Greenwood All-Star Salute the following month. MILLER TIME, his debut album, is generating significant airplay and positive reviews – and bringing more and more fans his way.
