Distributing, came to us with a problem: they wanted to let the local community know who they were and how their team plays a role in the local community - they wanted a way to instantly connect with customers. By featuring their warehouse, employees, and several local businesses, we were able to capture the essence behind their message - the power of community. Our partnership with Brown Distributing brings together our love for helping local businesses and making an impact and we are so happy that it brought us our first Telly!"

About Tasca Studios

Tasca Studios was founded by Chief Video Strategist, Rodrigo Tasca, who started his career in New York City - not by going to film school, but from fulfilling his passion for video while working in the hospitality industry. After a few years of freelancing in NYC as a videographer, he decided to return to South Florida to start a video production agency with the help of his sister. Without any capital or clients, Rodrigo used his parents' studio to launch his business, hence the name "Tasca Studios."

In 2018 and within two years of growing Tasca Studios, Rodrigo was featured in Gary Vee's New York Times bestseller "Crushing It!: How Great Entrepreneurs Build Their Business and Influence-and How You Can, Too," and has been featured in Yahoo! Finance, Voyage, and The Future, along with completing and winning Marty Neumeier Certified Brand Specialist Masterclass. Tasca Studios was even rated as one of the Top Corporate Video Production Companies in Fort Lauderdale.
