ABOUT

Since the age of 10 ZAESKEE was hanging out discovering the newest records at Chicago's legendary George's Music Room. He learned music by ear by listening to the radio, playing in high school bands also playing the piano, keyboards, drums, and percussion.

It was while ZAESKEE was attending an advanced high school music class in programming; where some professional musicians discovered the unique gifts this talented young man possessed.

In a few short years ZAESKEE found himself writing and working with national recording artists such as (Lupe Fiasco, Harpo Studios / Oprah Winfrey, Actress Karen Denise Aubert, Do or Die, Crucial Conflict, The album Sushi Samba, he also wrote the song Amor Em Chamas) just to name a few. Mr Whitehead relocated briefly to Houston Tx where he produced records for Rap-A-Lot Records and featured on many platinum selling records along with placements in national commercials and films. ZAESKEE music encompasses soul and rhythm while embracing blues, jazz, old school and modern grooves of urban music, resulting in style of his own.
