

22 Former Gang Members and Former Inmates to Receive Certificates of Completion and Universal HVAC Licenses

Students will receive their HVAC licenses and certificates after completing a free 10 week course at a non-profit, Skilled Trades for You.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, USA, June 3, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Former gang members and prison inmates have taken their exam that grants them Universal HVAC Licenses and have all successfully passed the nationally accredited exam. The Spring/Summer cohort will be receiving their certificate of completion on June 16th thanks to non-profit institute, Skilled Trades for You.

Ed Roche and Kiana Fleming are the founders of Skilled Trades for You (www.skilledtrades4u.com), a small institute who is truly devoted to giving back. Skilled Trades for You provides former gang members and inmates with a free 10 week course and upon completion, they will be granted a 608A Federal License in HVAC. The 10 week course supplies men with hands-on experience that will turn them into HVAC experts. Not only does Skilled Trades for You provide a completely free course, they also provide all the books, license exam, and tools necessary. Skilled Trades for You is supported by the first AME church. The class includes former gang members, prison inmates, and even a single mother! Students have overcome the odds and are changing their lives for the better. Skilled Trades for You focuses on giving inner city men/women opportunities for a better life and allows them to provide for their families. Students are excited for their future and what's to come next as universally certified HVAC technicians.

Students have ten weeks of in-class and hands-on learning.

Students are celebrated and recognized for their achievements.
