Therefore, the need has become an ALERT to secure if News Press and Press Agencies are providing for all Reporters, Correspondents, and Professionals the following before moving into their field missions.

□Special risk insurance that covers them in cases of danger to which they may be exposed.

□Do they receive appropriate and Certified “HEFAT” training before being sent to critical areas and facing any potential danger?

□Do they have enough flexibility to adapt and deal with Incidents?

□ Do they receive a risk assessment report before going to carry out their duties?

□ Is it all followed by a team briefing?

It is becoming more and more vital to secure the safety of the Media teams, especially the Reporters, Correspondents, and Other Professionals covering a diversity of events on the ground and for being exposed to theft, aggression, physical attacks, bullying, kidnapping, facing being shot or in the middle of a war event. Our Hostile Environment and Emergency First Aid Training - "HEFAT" will empower Teams to confidently and wisely face any of such above cases or incidents, and to become well trained and aware of the best available procedures to stay safe and to avoid damages, or being injured, by escalating the cases up to the worse case scenarios. The training can be done in any country of your choice, and many different locations allocated by PSS are suitable for this training as already conducted for other press agencies.
