

Developers of the Nwicode Mobile App Builder Are Releasing Their Own Crypto Coin

The coin was issued by the developers of Nwicode Inc, in order to develop and improve their own software development and transferred under the management of DAO

NEW CITY, NEW YORK, US, June 7, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Nwcoin project was launched by the developers of the Nwicode software with the aim of unlimited development and stability regardless of political and economic problems.

Nwcoin DAO

Nwcoin is a coin issued to improve the quality of service provision, internal settlement when buying and selling digital goods and services, remuneration of participants in the No-code community. Nwcoin is a BEP-20 token on BSC and it is the hottest contract for a rewards token on BSC.

We strive to be ardent supporters of free tools in which you need to earn money”

Diana Mayer

Nwcoin DAO issues a free-floating reserve currency that is backed by a basket of assets. By focusing on supply growth rather than price increases, Nwcoin DAO hopes that the $NWC will be able to function as a currency capable of maintaining its purchasing power regardless of market volatility.

The NWC token is a resident token of the Nwicode CMS software. It is designed to offer a variety of utilities for all members of the community of mobile application developers, marketing agencies and freelancers.

Nwcoin It differs from other digital currencies by an amazing, dynamic No Code community consisting of friendly people like you. Nwcoin creates incentives for all key players of the blockchain ecosystem, ensuring the decentralized development of digital money in the No-Code developer community

By launching a new WEB 3 marketplace for selling software, design templates and providing services, Nwicode opens up new jobs not only for technical specialists, but also for people who want to change their profession and do not have the opportunity to learn programming.

Try Nwicode today and become professionals in No Code development.
