

Idaho First Bank Announces Opening of Full-Service Branch in Bend, Oregon

BEND, OR, UNITED STATES, June 6, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Idaho First Bank (the "Bank") (OTC: IDFB) is pleased to announce the opening of a new full-service branch located in Bend, Oregon. The Bend location will serve as the seventh full-service branch of Idaho First Bank.

Originally opened as a Loan Production Office (LPO) in December 2020, this new location will provide full-service in-branch banking including checking and savings accounts, and lending for businesses as well as consumer home equity loans and first mortgages.

"We are very excited to open this full-service branch and continue expanding into the growing communities throughout Central Oregon," stated Todd Cooper, President and CEO of Idaho First Bank.

"Since opening the LPO in early 2021, we have been extremely pleased by the warm reception received from the Central Oregon community," shared Steve Ferber, Area Market Leader. "The staff in our downtown Bend office is a group of seasoned bankers averaging 14 years working in this market, focusing on commercial lending and community involvement. With this conversion to a full-service branch, we will now offer a complete array of banking solutions for the community; and, with our hands-on approach, our clients will continue to receive unmatched customer service."

The Bend branch is located at 1030 N.W. Bond Street #203 Bend, OR 97703 and will be open from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m starting on June 15, 2022.
