

Shansan “Chance” Chambers Launches the Arizona Black Cannabis Trade Association (ABCTA)

The nonprofit organization provides cannabis education, empowerment, and equity for communities impacted by the War on Drugs.

PHOENIX, ARIZONA, UNITED STATES, June 14, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Established Arizona cannabis entrepreneur Shansan “Chance” Chambers, today announced the launch of the new 501(c)3 nonprofit, the Arizona Black Cannabis Trade Association (ABCTA). The nonprofit provides cannabis education, empowerment, and equity in an effort to support a community previously targeted by the War on Drugs.

The nonprofit’s educational resources encompass an eight-course program beginning with Cannabis History 101 and concluding with How to Invest in the Cannabis Industry. The comprehensive business modules teach attendees about the industry, the cannabis plant, and how to start a plant-touching operation or ancillary business.

The Arizona Department of Health Services (ADHS) recently announced the winners of the coveted 26 social equity licenses. With predatory practices reported and ongoing criticism of the social equity program rules, Chambers designed the ABCTA to help social equity applicants and winners receive the best cannabis consulting, guidance and resources.

Chambers was inspired to join the industry after alternative medicine helped his grandmother during her cancer chemotherapy treatments. Chambers now has over seven years of experience in the cannabis industry and owns two companies aside from ABCTA, 420 Ultimate Tours, and Mwisho Blunts. 420 Ultimate Tours is one of the first Arizona cannabis tourism experiences, and Mwisho Blunts is a tobacco free blunt line providing the community a healthier alternative to chemical filled blunt wraps.

Cannabis industry veteran, Chance Chambers, launches the Arizona Black Cannabis Trade Association (ABCTA) to provide cannabis industry resources for a community previously targeted by the War on Drugs.

"It all starts with one person who wants to make a difference," said Chambers, "I have made the conscious effort in any business venture I dive into, to always make sure I am positively impacting the community and do all I can to assist people in need."

To get involved with the ABCTA or for more information, visit <https://www.arizonablackcannabis.org/> or follow on social media @arizonablackcannabis.

ABOUT ABCTA

I have made the conscious effort in any business venture I dive into, to always make sure I am positively impacting the community and do all I can to assist people in need."

Chance Chambers, ABCTA founder

Established in 2021, the Arizona Black Cannabis Trade Association (ABCTA) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit aiming to eliminate racial disparities in the Arizona cannabis industry by providing education, empowerment, and equity for the black community. ABCTA works closely with cannabis businesses and nonprofits who support demographics affected by the War on Drugs, ensuring the black community is not taken advantage of with predatory practices, and has equal access to resources. ABCTA assists with getting started in the cannabis industry, seeking out investment opportunities, job placement, funding, education, and more. ABCTA is committed to the black community and economic development within the Arizona cannabis industry by advocating for black patients, businesses, and consumers. To learn more about ABCTA or how to get involved, visit arizonablackcannabis.org/ or @arizonablackcannabis.

Sadie Thompson
Proven Media
+1 602-527-0794

email us here

Visit us on social media:

LinkedIn

Other

---

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/575761798>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2022 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.