Fine Rugs and Carpets at Nazmiyal Auctions, Including Silk Qum Rugs

NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, June 9, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Nazmiyal Auctions will present its upcoming Antique, Vintage & Modern Rug Auction just in time for summer. The event, which includes 160 quality lots, will take place at 12:00 PM on June 12, 2022. Seasoned rug collectors and casual decorators will find numerous lots of note, including elaborate Persian rugs and modernist Scandinavian carpets.

A silk vintage Persian Qum rug measuring nearly 13 feet by 9 feet is among the top lots (#5104; estimate: USD 30,000 – $50,000).

Made in the Qum region just south of Tehran, Iran, these detailed rugs often require years of labor from a highly trained weaver. The available Qum rug is made of silk yarns in delicate shades of red, rose, and burgundy. A large central medallion dominates the spread while a scattered flower pattern adds visual interest.

It draws from a rich tradition of pictorial rugs and carpets in Persian culture. Mashahir rugs depict the faces and wardrobes of society's celebrities, noblemen, and tastemakers. The available Mashahir rug depicts these figures in small groups, occasionally holding objects to indicate the subject of their talk or their profession. Surrounding the scene is a geometric red border. Other notable Persian items in this sale include an animal design antique Tabriz rug (lot #5162; estimate: $40,000 – $60,000), a large antique Persian Serapi rug (lot #5082; estimate: $30,000 – $40,000), and a pale yellow and beige antique Khorasan carpet (lot #5106; estimate: $30,000 – $40,000).

Beyond Persian carpets, the upcoming Nazmiyal Auctions event will present several large and room-sized Indian rugs. These include an oversized Indian rug with crisp floral designs and rich gold tones (lot #5107; estimate: $20,000 – $30,000), as well as an Indian floral rug inspired by the designs of William Morris. A British textile designer, Morris helped propel the Arts and Crafts Movement to success. He took inspiration from diverse sources, including medieval weavings and Persian Kerman carpets.

Other notable lots in the June rug auction include:

17th-century antique Flemish tapestry depicting a landscape scene (lot #5110; estimate: $30,000 – $50,000)
