

CRB Monitor and RiskScout Partner to offer commercial BSA/AML Platform for Cannabis and Emerging Market Businesses

Licensing Agreement Integrates CRB Monitor's Marijuana Business Data within RiskScout's Enhanced Due Diligence Platform

NASHVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES, June 14, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CRB Monitor, the nation's leading provider of cannabis corporate intelligence, announced its newly formed partnership with RiskScout to offer a commercial BSA/AML platform that streamlines complex compliance processes to verify, onboard, and manage emerging market businesses including cannabis. The licensing agreement will integrate CRB Monitor's marijuana-related business, licensing, and violations data within RiskScout's enhanced due diligence platform.

We're excited about the partnership & added value for users because CRB Monitor has the most comprehensive, up-to-date entity, licensing & ownership verification & monitoring in the cannabis industry.”

Justin Fischer, Co-Founder and CEO of RiskScout

Steven Kemmerling, Founder & CEO of CRB Monitor, commented, “We are thrilled to partner with RiskScout, which successfully guides financial institutions through complex and high-risk banking compliance challenges. As federal and state regulatory hurdles continue to evolve for the cannabis industry, integrating CRB Monitor's data within RiskScout's enhanced due diligence platform will help ensure that banks and credit unions don't run afoul of the rules.”

Justin Fischer, Co-Founder and CEO of RiskScout, commented "We share CRB Monitor's objective of reducing the cost and complexity of banking and financial services for the cannabis industry. We're excited about the partnership and added value for our users because CRB Monitor has the most comprehensive cannabis licensing data we've seen.”
