

Associated General Contractors of Georgia Announces New Board of Directors

Lyndy Jones named president of AGC Georgia Board of Directors

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, UNITED STATES, June 13, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Associated General Contractors of Georgia (AGC Georgia), the leading statewide association for the construction industry, recently elected Lyndy Jones as its chapter president. Jones is the founder and president of JCI Contractors, a firm based in his hometown of Moultrie.

"Our board of directors is a direct reflection of the diverse construction markets around Georgia, and we are proud to announce the leaders who will lead AGC Georgia over the next year," AGC Georgia CEO Mike Dunham said. "I'm incredibly honored to work with these innovative industry leaders."

Joining Lyndy Jones as an officer of the board include Brian Newsome of Albion as vice president, Joe Tuggle of Tuggle Construction as secretary and Mike Macon of Balfour Beatty Construction as treasurer.

"I am really looking forward to working hand-in-hand with this talented board to help navigate some of the current issues facing the construction industry," Jones said. "Together, I believe we can continue to inspire and engage new young talent to consider our industry through our ever-growing workforce development programs, as well as grow our voice through advocacy efforts which will help our state's legislative leaders and policy makers understand the construction industry's needs."

Directors serving on the AGC Georgia 2022-2023 Board include:

Trey Anderson, Anderson Construction Co. of Ft. Gaines
Dan Baker, Duffey Southeast Inc.
Scott Clark, RW Allen Construction, LLC
Wes Cobb, Jerry L. Johnson & Associates Inc.
