

SOARIN Group is the preferred IT & HR provider for the Behavior & Mental Health Industry

By partnering with the National Council for Mental Wellbeing, SOARIN Group is able to provide IT & HR Solutions across the United States.

LINCOLN, NE, USA, June 15, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SOARIN Group announces the successful partnership with the National Council for Mental Wellbeing.

For over 25 years, SOARIN Group employees have been providing IT & HR Services to the Behavioral & Mental Health industry throughout the midwest. SOARIN Group operates as the Chief Information Officer (CIO) and Human Resources (HR) Director for several of those organizations. Over the past year, and in conjunction with Jason's Heart, Inc., SOARIN Group has been expanding into many communities nationally to work specifically with organizations that deliver mental health and substance use services.

"We are always engaged in how to help our clients make sure their focus is on building their organizations to the best of their ability to serve their clients. We have always been successful in making sure that both IT & HR problems just go away", says Tom Nielsen, CEO of SOARIN Group. "With the partnership with the National Council for Mental Wellbeing, we will be able to help more organizations across the United States stay true to their mission.

"The nonprofit community is facing so many challenges when it comes to people and performance. There is an old school thought process that is just not working anymore", says Michaela Nielsen, Chief Heart Officer of SOARIN Group. "Tom and I have been working very hard over the past year to develop real and tangible solutions to fight the ever growing People and Technology problems in these organizations.

SOARIN Group will launch their Tampa, Florida location on July 1st, 2022. SOARIN Group is positioned to add Colorado, Kansas, Iowa, Minnesota & South Dakota in the coming months.
