

Cedric KOUKJIAN monumental sculpture “Liaison Hyperion” exhibited in Geneva, is the ultimate symbol of harmonious unity

Cedric KOUKJIAN pushes the limits of his craft and offering a continuous study in the meaning of the bond. His work “Liaison Hyperion” is viewable by the public COLOGNY, GENEVA, SWITZERLAND, June 14, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Measuring an impressive 3m, the sculpture made of stainless steel took 8 months of work to come to fruition. Entirely hand hammered and mirror polished the piece stands proudly reflecting the nature around it.

Depicting a chain made of 3 links, Cedric KOUKJIAN stays true to his sculptural style. The metaphor put forward is one of unity where each link is independently free while being part of a greater whole. Building on the fable of the Greek philosopher Aesop who taught us that “unity makes strength, fight wastes.” The designer offers a contemporary take on this saying by studying unity through his sculptural work represented by the chain.

Cedric KOUKJIAN does it again with this new monumental sculpture by pushing the limits of his craft and offering a continuous study in the meaning of the bond. His work “Liaison Hyperion” is exhibited and viewable by the public in Cologny, Switzerland.

Cedric KOUKJIAN new monumental sculpture "Liaison Hyperion" exhibited in Geneva, Switzerland is the ultimate symbol of harmonious unity.

-----FRENCH-----

La nouvelle œuvre monumentale de Cedric KOUKJIAN "Liaison Hyperion" exposé à Genève, est l'ultime symbole de l'union harmonieuse.

Mesurant 3m de haut la sculpture en acier inoxydable à pris 8 mois de travail pour se concrétiser. Entièrement martelé à la main avec une finition de polie miroir, la pièce joue avec les reflets de la nature qui l'entoure.

Représentant une chaîne composée de 3 maillons, Cedric KOUKJIAN reste fidèle à son thème sculptural. La métaphore de l'unité est mise en avant, chaque maillon est indépendamment libre pour construire un ensemble plus vaste que la somme de ses parties. S'appuyant sur la fable du philosophe grec Esope qui nous enseigne que « Autant l'union fait la force, autant la discorde expose à une prompté défaite ». Le designer construit sur la base de ce dicton en offrant une étude sculptural contemporaine à travers le symbole de la chaîne.

A travers cette nouvelle sculpture monumentale, Cedric KOUKJIAN continue à prouver que les limites de son métier peuvent être poussées et continue à rechercher le sens derrière le concept du lien. « Liaison Hyperion » est exposé à Cologny, en Suisse.
