

Jessica Lynn announces her return to the road with the "Lone Rider" Tour.

Talented vocalist, multi-instrumental, and multi-media superstar Jessica Lynn returns to the stage.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, June 17, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On the heels of the pandemic, Jessica Lynn is set to bring her triumphant energy and strong vocals back to the stage. Sponsored by Kiesel Custom Guitars, the new tour will kick off in Augusta, New Jersey, on June 25th, stopping at cities across the country, all the way from New York to Sturgis, before wrapping up in Pawling, New York, at Daryl's House on October 29th.

On previous tours, Jessica has shared the stage with iconic musicians such as Brad Paisley, Keith Urban, Loretta Lynn, ZZ Top, Richard Marx, Lonestar, Montgomery Gentry, and others. The "Lone Rider" tour will highlight Jessica's high-energy stage presence and vibrant voice, while showcasing her abilities on various instruments such as piano, guitar, harmonica, and drums, traversing a set list of hits new and old sure to leave fans craving an encore.

During the pandemic, Jessica began broadcasting weekly "living room" concerts online, resulting in them charting every week on Pollstar's livestream chart, breaking the Top 10 regularly in all livestreams globally. In addition, she was named a Top 40 Livestreamer of 2020 and a Top 25 Livestreamer of 2021 by the ticket-reporting industry giant.

After teasing about the upcoming tour on her social platforms, Jessica is ready to use the stage as a catalyst to connect with her fans and celebrate the return of global live performances. Tickets for the concerts are on sale to the general public now. To learn about Jessica Lynn and her tour "Lone Rider," visit her website.
