

VocalChimp.Com Launches Real Sounding Human Voice Over Creator With Language Translation Using Artificial Intelligence

VocalChimp.com launches a text to voice over creator for marketing animation videos, video projects, sales presentations using artificial intelligence.

WESTON, FL, UNITED STATES, June 17, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- VocalChimp (VocalChimp.com) launches a text to voice over platform for creators of marketing animation videos, video projects, sales presentations and any other voice driven projects using the latest artificial intelligence. The platform has over 1,000 languages and dialects in both male and female voices. VocalChimp also translates the voice overs into over 40 languages.

The platform is simple to use. A user enters text/script, chooses the language, country and voice, and the system creates the voice over. The subscriber has a choice of translating it to another language, choosing male or female voices, speed modulation and other features to create a real sounding human voice over.

This platform is the most comprehensive artificial intelligence voice over creator out there. Anyone who needs a voice over for any project should try the system for free at VocalChimp.com.”

Jonathan Bomser

“This platform is the most comprehensive artificial intelligence voice over creator out there. Anyone who needs a voice over for any project should try the system for free at VocalChimp.com,” said Jonathan Bomser, Co-Founder of VocalChimp.

The platform starts with plans of only $49 per month for 100,000 characters (20,000 words). There are no contracts, and a subscriber can cancel anytime.
