Senior Financial Consultant, David Deckard of FHE Health, helped direct the event. This event is one that speaks to Deckard on a personal level as a cancer survivor himself. He shared that after reviewing the Cancer for College's Mission Statement, he could not say no to helping raise funds.

Cancer for College was founded by 2x cancer survivor Craig Pollard. Mr. Pollard has made it possible for over 1,500 students to attend college. Interested applicants for the Cancer for College Scholarship can apply online at <https://cancerforcollege.org/>.

Deckard is a former teacher and understands firsthand the financial burden that cancer can cause on families. He strongly believes in the organization and is proud and eager to present these students with much-needed scholarship opportunities.

All of the Cars Combating Cancer Show and Shine's proceeds went directly to the Cancer for College organization. The finale awards ceremony presented awards going to the best in class for classic car, classic truck, American car, European car, and an award for overall best in the show.

Donations are also encouraged, including monetary gifts or in the form of volunteer work at an upcoming Cancer for College Scholarship event.
