

New Appointed Gun Violence Prevention CZAR Andre Mitchell Leads Man Up! Inc. 5K Walk Against Gun Violence This Weekend

*A 5K Walk and Talk Against Gun Violence
This Juneteenth Weekend*

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, June 18, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- New York City's Mayor Adams' newly appointed Gun Violence Prevention CZAR Andre "AT" Mitchell will lead a 5K walk and talk against gun violence this Juneteenth Weekend. The walk organized by Mitchell's community-based organization Man Up! Inc. will take place today, Saturday, June 18, 2022, at 10:00 AM from the Barclay Center located at 620 Atlantic Avenue, Brooklyn, NY.

The 10th Annual Father's Day event by Man Up! Inc. includes a one-hour power walk and talk against gun violence plaguing our nation. The talk and walk, equivalent to a 5K, will start from the Barclay Center and conclude at the African Burial Grounds in lower Manhattan. Mitchell, the newly appointed Gun Violence Prevention Czar and Co-chair of Mayor Adam's Gun Violence Prevention Task Force, will bring together community leaders and organizers to lend their support and voice during today's critical event.

I am honored to lead this march and connect with as many fathers as possible. It takes a village to work together and combat gun violence in our cities.”

Man Up! Inc.*

“This year's event is extraordinary for me because Father's Day and Juneteenth fall on the same Sunday. As a result, hundreds of fathers from all over the city will participate in this year's celebration. Furthermore, because of these holidays' significance, I am honored to lead this march and connect with as many fathers as possible. It takes a village to work together and combat gun violence in our cities. - Andre "AT" Mitchell, Founder, Man Up! Inc.
