and flourishes brought to life by the renowned area architecture firm of Gritella & Associates accompany a blank canvas of possibilities for future commercial or personal use. A former luxury brand jewelry factory and headquarters occupy a slice of the nearly eight-hectare property. A stunning, contemporary structure, the factory and headquarters were also designed with entertainment in mind. Host a crowd in grand style from an enormous roof terrace overlooking majestic rolling scenery and ancient hilltop towns, not to mention parking for over 80 guests. Dream of the future aspirations for this incredible property, and relax into the effortless Italian way of life in the fully-renovated residential farmhouse.

Celebrated worldwide for its wine-making, Medieval hill towns, and black and white truffles, the Piedmont region is an ideal spot to live la dolce vita. The gorgeous landscape, dominated by rolling farms and vineyards between Turin, Milan, and the Mediterranean Sea, received a UNESCO designation in 2014. 16th-century wine caves, regional gastronomic specialties, and world-
