

Superchief Gallery NFT Schedule of Events June 20-26 Alongside Nft.Nyc 2022

Partners Include Rug Radio, Timepieces, Totem, Obscura, Vault by CNN + The Ukrainian Government, Ninfa, Hope For Haiti, The Giving Block, Snowcrash & More

NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, June 20, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- For the past decade, Superchief Gallery has been committed to supporting underground artists and elevating them to the global stage. Founded in 2012 by Edward Zipco & Bill Dunleavy, Superchief has emerged as an essential vehicle for the art & culture needs of some of the biggest names within the Web3 ecosystem while maintaining their commitment to the fringe art community.

Around NFT.NYC Superchief Gallery NFT will present a substantial amount of artwork at its finest. Thanks to their display partner WHIM, Superchief Gallery NFT has been able to show NFT collectors and community what it feels like to actually “live with digital artwork” as the artist intended.

Experience the wonders of unique and cutting edge NFT art at Superchief Gallery now through June 26 at their NoMad gallery located at 56 E 11th St in Manhattan with a multitude of events in conjunction with top and emerging players in the space:

Since Friday, June 17, Superchief Gallery has already been hosting events kicking off with their 10-year anniversary Mega Group Show where they displayed many NFT pieces included from their Los Angeles location Mega Group Show earlier this month alongside some of their favorites from the last year. Over the weekend (June 18 & 19), Superchief Gallery supported NFT Asia's "A Screen Of One's Own" show. Curated by Clara Peh, with support from NFT Asia's core team, the show spotlighted talented artists working with a wide range of NFT artistic mediums and styles from all across Asia and beyond. There was also a solo exhibition from VHILS where he revealed pieces from the digital body of work he has been developing over the last few years, including his "Rust Belt" series and "Layers," his most recent large-scale project of generative NFTs.

ABOUT SUPERCHIEF

As a part of the international underground art community, Edward Zipco & Bill Dunleavy founded Superchief Gallery in 2012. On March 25th, 2021, Superchief Gallery NFT opened its doors in New York City, establishing itself as the World's First Physical / IRL NFT Gallery. Since opening, Superchief Gallery NFT has proudly worked with Christie's Auction House on their first ever CryptoPunk Auction, produced the first ever IRL NFT events for Opensea, MakersPlace, Foundation, UNICEF, The United Nations, The Ukrainian Government, NFT.NYC, NFT | LA and many more.
