

Popular Chicago DJ Honored During AAPI Month

Bears Music Coordinator Part of Former Philippine President's Family

CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES, June 29, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Chicago Bears Music Coordinator and DJ Jay Ejercito, along with his family, were honored by the Windy City during Asian American Pacific Islanders Heritage Month in May. Ejercito's father, Joseph Ejercito Estrada served as President of the Philippines from 1998 to 2001.

In addition to being President, Estrada served as Vice President and Mayor of Manila during his political career. And he was a popular actor, playing the lead in over 100 films. Ejercito is the brother of musical artist King Marie, who penned the Chicago Bull's entertainment video score "Ready". She was also honored during Chicago's AAPI Heritage Month.

The popular Chicago DJ, known by his stage name "DJ JayFunk," is affiliated with all four of Chicago's professional sports teams (Bears, Bulls, White Sox and Blackhawks). Not only does Ejercito pump up the crowds, he's also part of events like 7-year old baseball fan and cancer patient Beau Dowling's recent visit to Guaranteed Rate Field.
