

The Grind Session Hosts First Ever HS Basketball Combine in NYC

NEW YORK, NY, USA, June 22, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The Grind Session has announced today that it will be holding its first HS basketball Combine. Taking place in Brooklyn, NY from June 21-23 the reimagined Combine will provide some of the best high school players in the country player evaluation opportunities high level 5v5 competition and opportunities to get off-court educational enrichment that will be provided by presenting partner True Capital.

"The Grind Session Combine will strive to be an essential part of elite HS players off-season routine" said Scott Waldrop, President of The Grind Session. "While this Combine will be new to the players, we're excited to creatively deliver a valuable experience for our teams and players who have remained loyal to us over the years and for prospective players who are just beginning their Grind Session journeys."

The Grind Session Combine will give players the opportunity to participate in individual on-court program consisting of speed and agility testing, anthropometric measurements, shooting drills and a "Pro Day" video. In addition to those activities the players will compete in full court 5 v5 games on two of the event's days.

As part of the event's innovative format, the Grind Session will incorporate HomeCourt, a mobile basketball training application that uses advanced machine learning and computer vision, to provide analytics and record the shooting evaluation portion of the Grind Session Combine and for players to create a unique "Pro Day" video. The video, used to showcase a player's skills, may feature only the individual player (and either a coach or trainer) and will be up to 5 minutes long. HomeCourt is developed by NEX Team, Inc., an NBA strategic partner.

The Grind Session Combine presented by True Capital is scheduled to take place on June 21st through June 23rd at the Gabbey Rec Center in Brooklyn NY.
