ImpexBooking 2.0 platform from ImpexDocs is now launched.

IMPEX DOCS ANNOUNCED TODAY THAT RELEASES ITS ENHANCED SHIPMENT BOOKING SOFTWARE HAS BEEN LAUNCHED.

Ecosystem innovations are essential to ImpexDocs' vision and delivery of the connected supply chain. ImpexBooking 2.0 is aimed at helping exporters remain agile in the current uncertain environment and achieve best possible outcomes for their sea shipment management" – Manish Desai (CEO, ImpexDocs).

ImpexDocs provides trade export software and service solutions for global businesses of all sizes. Their latest software release ImpexBooking 2.0, offers a much-needed solution to manage the end-to-end vessel booking process for global exporters in one place. This comprehensive software platform will enable companies to book shipments online with over 50 shipping companies worldwide. Exporters can search global vessel schedules and manage, upload and compare rates.

Impex Booking 2.0 offers one of the most comprehensive sea shipment booking software with more than 18 million schedules and over 420k port pairs available within its platform.

"Our objective has always been to help businesses tackle their most complex global trade and shipment management challenges; ImpexBooking 2.0 will be a key part of accomplishing that. ImpexBooking can integrate with any existing ERP or trade management software and help make agile decisions with up-to-data information and options in the hands of exporters," Tejas Oza, Chief Revenue Office, ImpexDocs, said.

ImpexBooking 2.0 will make it possible for global exporters to bring shipment booking in-house and achieve significant time and cost savings on their shipment booking processes, facilitating long-term growth and success.

"With ImpexBooking 2.0, global exporters will be able to save over 50% time spent manually navigating the ocean freight management process, and they will be able to track their shipment from dispatch to destination effortlessly."
