The Last Summer

'The Touch of Art'

"I am an award-winning realist artist from Athens, Greece. I work with graphite pencils, colored pencils, soft pastels, and Aquarelle. The concept of my art is to share a positive message for this world and a better world. I want to touch people with my art and travel to see the beauties that this world has and give people hope for a better, more peaceful world and a better quality of life without the stress of a modern lifestyle. Art is always a way of expressing myself and passing the message that we can achieve more as individuals and as nations if we genuinely believe in ourselves in these difficult years.
