

Despite the bearish market conditions, Kounotori Token is optimistic about its future

Throughout the Bear Market, Kounotori has remained strong

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, June 22, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The market has recently experienced a significant decrease, with the whole Cryptocurrency Market Cap plunging below one trillion dollars. The meltdown impacted the altcoin market, with several projects down more than 90% from their all-time highs, and mainstream media pronouncing cryptocurrencies to be out of favor. This is the period when only the strong will survive when projects with stable tokenomics and long-term ambitions will emerge above the fear, uncertainty, and doubt.

Kounotori has similarly been impacted by the recent market crisis; with its price pegged to ETH, it has dropped by 76% from the ATH of $0.000000021719 (source: <https://www.coingecko.com/coins/kounotori>). In spite of the project's recent price reduction, the number of holders has increased by 40%

Despite recent market falls, Kounotori Token creators and the community as a whole are optimistic that Kounotori will survive this bear market and deliver on its pledges.

Kounotori Token, which debuted on the Ethereum network on the 3rd of December 2021, has a fully doxxed development team, numerous security mechanisms, and manipulation-resistant tokenomics. With the assistance of Tech Alchemy, the world's #1 Blockchain Agency (source: www.clutch.co), the Kounotori development team intends to develop its centralised exchange (CEX) with a staking platform in which the Kounotori Token will play a prominent role by offering the largest returns in a stable coin such as USDT/USDC.

The project's centralised exchange (CEX) intends to provide low-cost listings to KYC-approved projects of all sizes, something that does not currently exist in DeFi. The Whitepaper for
