Aspire Technology Partners

“

Aspire Wireless as a Service is a real game-changer for companies that need wide-area wireless coverage. It can be on campus, an arena, stadium, or campground”

John C. Harris, President & CEO of Aspire

Aspire WaaS provides managed wireless as an operational expense making deployment easier on the budget.

Aspire’s WaaS includes the initial site survey for every site and specifies hardware, mounting location/orientation, cabling, power source, and backhaul model. WaaS also includes day-2 monitoring and replacement services for all components in case of a failure.

“Aspire Wireless as a Service is a real game-changer for companies that need wide-area wireless coverage. It can be on campus, an arena, stadium, or campground,” said

John C. Harris, President & CEO of Aspire. “A strong and stable wireless connection is a must in today’s streaming world. And it’s available now as an operational expense, minimizing your investment while maximizing your wireless coverage.”
