Group, a leader in Technical & Commercial services for Electrification, Artificial Intelligence, & Connectivity, announced the launch of the Industry Leadership Program (ILP) from the Economy Brand. The Program utilizes Economy's independent and impartial assessment process to qualify and nominate Industry Leaders as best-in-class solution providers for supporting OEMs, Tier-1s, and Suppliers in areas of product development, validation, testing, and/or manufacturing.

The ILP will clearly identify which providers are the Industry Leaders in their field, a critical nomination which can further distinguish their excellence in a competitive marketplace."

Anthony R. Giesey, Senior Vice President of EVONOMY Group

Economy's Industry Leadership Program (ILP) will competitively assess companies offering:

1. Testing Equipment - ADAS Sensors, Connectivity, & Electrification Products
2. Services - Testing & Benchmarking
3. Services - Engineering Design (Hardware & Software)
4. Services - Rapid Prototyping
5. Services - Contract Manufacturing
6. Manufacturing - Multi-Shot, High Cavity Tooling
7. Manufacturing - CNC

8. Manufacturing - 3D Printing

9. Manufacturing - PCBs

10. Consulting & Certification - Automotive SPICE

11. Consulting & Certification - MISRA Compliance

12. Consulting & Certification - Functional Safety (ISO26262)

"The Industry Leadership Program (ILP) offered by Economy further extends our independent and impartial assessment capabilities to consider other value-added services which are critically needed by OEMs, Tier-1s, and Suppliers throughout their development process. The ILP will clearly identify which providers are the Industry Leaders in their field, a critical nomination which can further distinguish their excellence in a competitive marketplace," said Anthony R. Giesey, Senior Vice President of EVONOMY Group.

CORE BENEFITS & HOW-TO APPLY

Companies which apply to the Economy Industry Leadership Program (ILP) will undergo a thorough evaluation and vetting process to determine the capability and quality of their offerings. Companies which prove to meet the highest standards of excellence in all categories will receive the following benefits:

1. Economy will issue a Press Release awarding "Best-In-Class" distinction and "Industry Leadership" to the Company for their respective offering
2. Economy will highlight Awarded-ILP recipients in all marketing materials to OEMs, Tier-1s, and Suppliers to maximize exposure of offerings which have been independently and impartially recognized to be best-in-class
3. Economy will feature Awarded-ILP recipient offerings on our website, creating an accessible resource of best-in-class providers

To apply, companies can begin the process by sending an e-mail to contact@evonomy.com , subject line "Industry Leadership Program". Our team will reach out with further instructions regarding the assessment and next steps.
