

Comfort Keepers of Fort Myers Was Proudly Awarded the Comfort Keepers Operational Excellence Award for 2021

Comfort Keepers of Fort Myers was given this prestigious award due to its exceptional service to clients and employees.

FORT MYERS, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, June 24, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- At the 2022 Comfort Keepers Leadership Connect Conference in Anaheim, California, Kim and Tom Dean were presented with the Operational Excellence award. Franchisees who consistently provide exceptional service to customers, employees, and the community through their local businesses are granted the award.

The franchise owner must work hard to achieve this recognition. Award winners are chosen based on overall client satisfaction for outstanding service and care quality, which necessitates adherence to strict quality standards. Their level of participation in the community is also an important factor.

Words cannot describe how thankful and proud we are to have a team so dedicated to delivering the highest quality of services to clients, employees, and the community.”

Kim Dean

Dean said, "This is truly an honor." It's wonderful to be acknowledged not only by our clients but also by our caregivers, who consistently offer the high-quality care that distinguishes Comfort Keepers, and by Lee, Collier, and Charlotte counties, where we provide our services. We are delighted to win this award because we are proud of the work we do.
