

Hormonal Contraceptives Market Players Focus On Making Breakthroughs With New Developments

The Business Research Company's Hormonal Contraceptives Market 2022 - Opportunities And Strategies – Global Forecast To 2030

LONDON, GREATER LONDON, UK, June 23, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ --

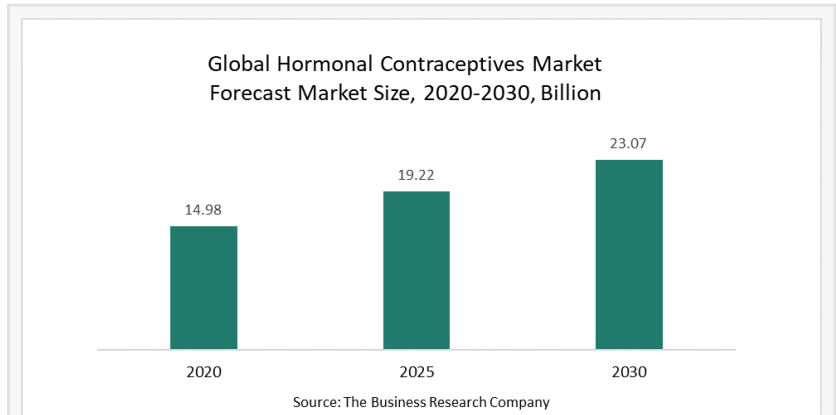

Companies in the hormonal contraceptives market are focusing on innovative products and new developments. Companies are focusing on new advanced drugs to manufacture hormonal contraceptives drugs for various applications.

According to the hormonal contraceptives market analysis, scientists and researchers continue to make breakthroughs in pregnancy prevention; some of these new contraceptives may be safer, more effective, or easier to use than current options for birth control. For instance, in 2021, the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) approved a combination pill containing naturally occurring Estrogen, Estetrol. This combination tablet (Nextstellis, Mayne Pharma) is the first and only contraceptive pill containing 3 mg Drospirenone and 14.2 mg Estetrol, a naturally occurring Estrogen produced from a plant source.

The increasing awareness in women of the availability of family planning services and increased awareness regarding the need to prevent unintended pregnancies, especially among young couples, are expected to drive the hormonal contraceptives market growth in the forecast period. For example, according to the 2020 KFF Women's Health Survey among different subgroups of 2,695 women ages 18 to 49, the majority say it is very important (60%) or somewhat important (10%) for them to avoid becoming pregnant. Oral contraceptives and condoms were the leading forms of reversible contraception women used, and almost 25% said they used an intrauterine device (IUD).
