/EINPresswire.com/ -- Introducing Lords of The Lands – A Futuristic Metaverse Space for NFT Rentals

Overview

Lords of The Lands (LOL) is a utility-driven metaverse project, futuristic new age medieval world ruled by its neo billionaires known as Lords. Built on the Ethereum network, the LOL metaverse can be accessed through iOS, Android, Web and other virtual reality applications.

LOL Land NFT

The project aims to become the future of gaming, entertainment and ecommerce while generating passive-income for its holders.

LOL is bringing its first presale collection of 255 Lords and 300 Lands. The project has already started the registration for the Allowlist to book its whitelisting spot through the Premint website (premint.xyz/LOL).

Key Features

Lands NFTs

The LOL land NFTs are non-transferrable fungible virtual assets built on the Ethereum smart contracts. Land NFT holders can monetize these digital lands and earn monthly rentals. These rentals can be claimed at 1 p.m. UTC on the day 1 of each month. You can purchase these lands with the Ethereum token and create your own virtual world with pre-built/custom templates in the Lords of the Lands Metaverse.

Types of Lands on the LOL metaverse:

- Prime Land NFTs – a total of 27 plots are available in Presale at 0.8 ETH each and the main-sale price for the same is 1 ETH.
- Platinum Land NFTs – 92 plots are available in Presale for 0.4 ETH each and the main-sale price for the land is 0.6 ETH.
- Lands NFTs – 181 total plots available in Presale for 0.2 ETH and the main-sale price is 0.3 ETH.

Apart from that, every Land NFT comes with hidden treasure chests depending on the “rarity” of the land. The hidden treasure chests can be of platinum, gold and silver. The treasure chests contain rare LOL NFTs such as Vaults, Lords, accessories, e-gaming passes, etc., depending on the land’s rarity.

Lords of the Lands organizes NFT gaming tournaments twice a month. They have partnered with the biggest e-gaming platform and will be running these tournaments on games like FreeFire, Minecraft, GTA V, PUBG, etc. Participate in these gaming tournaments and win exclusive gaming NFTs, crypto and much more. Only LOL e-gaming NFT pass-holders can take part in the LOL gaming tournaments. At present, there are only 2000 passes. So, hurry and grab your NFT tournament pass. Make sure to follow their Twitter (<https://twitter.com/LordsOfTheLands>) to stay updated.

Lords NFTs

The Lords are the virtual avatars and richest billionaires from the medieval era who are dressed as the neo age meta landlords. The Lords have unique attributes or rarities like rental boosts, superpowers, clothes, gadgets, and accessories. You can mint these Lord NFTs and earn bonuses that can boost your rental earnings. The boosting power depends on the rarity of the minted Lord. The rentals are boosted on the 1st of every month at 1 p.m. UTC. There are 255 Lords NFTs. These Lords also have the privilege to explore hidden parts of the Lords of the Lands metaverse and win NFTs.

How to earn in the LOL metaverse?
