Places Far Away offers a listening journey from the Mediterranean inspired "Amicizia," to the Cherry Blossoms of Japan in "Sakura Prelude," and the epic adventure on the title track "Places Far Away." Mr. Fisher also navigates the listener through romantic pieces like "Silk Stone Heart." and "Not Even the Rain" (written for his wife).

"I write music for the pure love of it" says Mr. Fisher, "This music was inspired by my global travels, people I care deeply about, and the beauty I experience in the world around me. With Places Far Away, I've tried to create a musical experience for the listener that is eclectic, timeless, adventurous, and beautiful."

Mr. Fisher's musical journey has been a path less traveled. In his youth, Daniel played keyboards in a Rock & Roll band. He then pursued a professional career in engineering. His work required
