

Ten Locations to Celebrate Same-Sex Weddings in the State of Yucatan

From weddings to honeymoons and anniversaries to vow renewals, the Yucatan gets romantic

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, June 23, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- "Love is love" is the chant we hear in celebration of the right for same-sex couples to wed. What may be one of the noblest and most hopeful moments in many a life is today legal in about 30 countries. In 2021, the state of Yucatan passed laws that made same-sex weddings legal in the state, and earlier this year those laws went into effect, making the millennia-rich destination an alternative to set the scene for this important occasion.

From weddings to honeymoons and anniversaries to vow renewals, the Yucatan gets romantic

Yucatan is a romantic destination by nature, nestled in the midst of an atmosphere of mysticism, magic, color, history, places taken as if from a romantic movie, and, in addition, with one of the most exquisite cuisines in Mexico, it is the ideal place to live and celebrate love.

The following are some of the locations ready to help design a romantic getaway, be it a destination wedding or just a secluded moment with a beloved.

Zazil Tunich (<https://zaziltunich.com/en/>) is a 65 feet deep Cavern-Cenote located in Valladolid and features more than 500 thousand years of stone formations, Zazil Tunich has been appointed one of the most spectacular cenotes in the region, with thousands of stalagmites and stalactites, it is the biggest Cenote in Yucatan. For those not looking to do a western wedding ceremony, the location offers the opportunity to have a Maya commitment ceremony or to have a purification ceremony in the sacred water of Xibalba inside the Zazil Tunich Cavern-Cenote. The cenote is surrounded by Hacienda Selva Maya which can hold large wedding celebrations.

For those looking for a beach wedding, the Yucatan Riviera in Puerto Progreso offers paradisiacal beaches with soft white sand, with beautiful emerald green waters, surrounded by a great variety of flora and fauna. Kokomo Beach Club <https://www.kokomo.mx/> offers the retreat atmosphere of a private venue with almost 200 feet of private beach-front space. It's also a six-room boutique hotel.

Grupo Izamal is a 100% Yucatecan family business that offers the hotels of Rinconada del Convento, San Antonio de Padua, and Tuul Hotel offers authentic sceneries for emotive weddings and spectacular events, with the magical and colonial atmosphere that Izamal transmits to its visitors. The strategic location of its facilities allows the guests to gather, for it has 38 bedrooms in its 3 hotels.

Villa Mercedes Merida, Curio Collection by Hilton Elegant rooms and colonial architecture this venue has three restaurant spaces, seven meeting rooms, a pool and a garden for weddings. Centrally located in the city of Merida, it can also serve as the location for rehearsal dinners and with 127 guest rooms, a place for the wedding party to stay at an economical rate.

Chable Resort & Spa <https://chablehotels.com/yucatan/events/weddings/> is a magical backdrop for destination weddings. Surrounded by beautiful gardens the luxury complex radiates romance and sophistication. Tropical gardens boast a marvelous view of the original 19th-century walls of the former Hacienda while the exquisite cenote deck is situated in the heart of the Wellness Spa. The property can accommodate weddings of up to 100 people.

Hacienda San Antonio Hool <https://www.sanantoniohool.com/> dates back to the 17th century and has great historical and cultural value. The exotic gardens, which can host events for up to 700 people, create the perfect setting for this monumental building, since special interest was put in designing them using exuberant local endangered species such as the guayacán, machiche and palo de tinte trees. as well as many original fruit trees and flower shrubs from the region.

Hacienda Temozon, a Luxury Collection Hotel, Temozon Sur has 28 rooms and event space which guests often use for weddings. The property boasts extensive gardens surrounded by story-like coral walls, white moldings, and Mayan architecture. Couples can relax in the on-site spa, uniquely located in a cenote. <https://www.marriott.com/en-us/hotels/midtl-hacienda-temozon-a-luxury-collection-hotel-temozon-sur/>

Hacienda Xcanatun by Angsana is surrounded by four acres of private gardens, filled with lush vegetation and bright tropical flowers that highlight the beauty that made it one of the most important haciendas in the Yucatan Just 15 minutes away from downtown Merida, Hacienda Xcanatun by Angsana is located in an enclave where history and tradition come together. Restored to its 18th-century grandeur as one of the most iconic henequen (sisal) haciendas in the Yucatan, the resort features 18 historic suites that fuse contemporary details with local touches and 36 brand new, exquisitely designed suites, offering the effortless harmony between nature and modern spaces. <https://www.angsana.com/mexico/hacienda-xcanatun>

For those looking to take advantage of the destination wedding and following it up with a honeymoon, the historic but luxurious one-room properties of Casa Azul by Private Haciendas <https://www.privatehaciendas.com/azul.html> and Hotel Oriundo Luxury Nature hotel <https://www.facebook.com/Oriundo-Luxury-Nature-Villas-103314095626210/> will fit the bill.

Yucatán is home to a plethora of professional wedding planners, who can coordinate all details of a same-sex couple's special day. The international airport of the capital city Mérida offers nonstop flights from Miami, Houston, Dallas, San Diego and Oakland/San Francisco.
