Aleksandra Ciążyńska, Art is an Eternal Learning

"Art is my great passion which I try to develop every day. A passion that is extremely interesting and addictive because I am constantly learning something new thanks to it. Yes, art is eternal learning that allows you to pay attention to things that are imperceptible to others. Discover the beauty of the world around us, the uniqueness of forms, colors, and shapes that accompany us imperceptibly every day. It allows you to discover yourself, look into the soul's recesses, and constantly find new faces. The ability to paint pictures is a gift that needs to be cared for every day. I am glad that I can share this gift with the world."
