LDPE and LLDPE sealant web films are easy to apply and provide long-lasting protection.

NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, June 24, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- LDPE and LLDPE sealant web films are easy to apply and provide long-lasting protection. Sealant films are an important part of proper sealant application. Proper film installation prevents air and water from leaking under the sealant, which can cause premature failure of the sealant and possible water damage.

With so many different types of sealants on the market, it is important to know the differences between LDPE and LLDPE films.

LDPE films are less expensive than LLDPE films but have a lower tear strength. They are also more susceptible to moisture intrusion, so they should only be used in applications where water drainage is not a concern.
