("Lexington National") announced today that they have completed a countrywide rate filing for both contract and commercial surety. Lexington National is now accepting opportunities from agents, brokers, and principals.

Lexington National has a specific interest in program business and opportunities to serve as a fronting carrier in the surety space.

"Being a small and nimble carrier, we do not have significant minimum premium requirements that other markets command. We pride ourselves on being easy to work with and by providing quick responses to our agents and business partners" said Ronald Frank, CEO and President of Lexington National.
